REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:
2. Applicants' communication paper dated 11/3/03 is acknowledged. Applicants have amended claims 1, 3, 5, 6, 9, 10. Therefore, the claims under consideration are the claims 1-16.
3. Applicants' above stated amendments to claims 1, 3, 5, 6, 9, 10 together with their arguments and remarks are sufficient for withdrawal of the rejections made under 35 U.S. 112 paragraph second. Therefore the same are now withdrawn.
4. Applicants' arguments and remarks to gather with above stated amendments to claims 1, 3, 5, 6, 9, 10 have been considered favorably, and found persuasive for the withdrawal of rejections made under 35 U.S.C. 102(b). Therefore, the same are now withdrawn.
5. The closest prior art of record reference Zvi et al (WO 9006119 dated 6/1990) teaches metallo-organic cobalt compounds and their uses for treating burn, wound, and tumor cells.

Zvi differs from the instant invention by not describing instant step (b) of instant claim 5 which consists of contacting the Co (III) Schiff's base complex with a diamine chelator or a di-2-methyl-imidazole chelator.
6. The other prior art ref. Gershon et al (U.S.P. 5753698) teaches making of Cobalt 3+ complexes and their utility as method for treating cyanide poisoning. See Experimental details in columns 9-12 and the procedures 1-6.

Art Unit: 1624

References Zvi, Gershon either alone or in combination do not indicate or suggest to arrive at the instant method of stabilizing the Cobalt (II) complexes by using L as -NRR'; -(CH<sub>2</sub>) n-CH<sub>2</sub>-NRR'—forming either imidazole or 2-methylimidazole.

Therefore, the instant invention is deemed to be novel and patentably distinct.

6A. A signed copy of applicants' IDS paper dated 1/9/02 is enclosed with this communication for their records.

7. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
